Seeing your association in Christ Jesus!

Alan Platt (Visionary Leader)

We are included in His death, His resurrection and His triumphant ascendance to the right hand of the Father.

How should you interpret His death? As your own. 1 Peter 1:10-14 says that the prophets, who prophesied about this grace which was to be yours, began to search and enquire about this salvation. They wanted to know what person or time was indicated by the Spirit of Christ within them when they predicted His sufferings – and the subsequent glory. All have sinned and fall short of that glory, but in the sufferings of Christ you see the subsequent glory. YOU SEE HOW GOD RESTORED MAN TO HIMSELF THROUGH HIS SON'S OBEDIENCE. Through one Man's obedience and by the grace of God He tasted death for everyone, He was wounded for our iniquities and He was chastised with our punishment so that we might be reconciled to the Father in peace again.

The secret to unlocking the power of the Gospel is to also see yourself associated in the resurrection in Christ Jesus. When He was raised a new species of mankind was born. A new race was born. He put an end to the old fallen adamic race. He became the last Adam. He brought many sons to glory. Instead of seeing the fallen state of man in Adam, you see Jesus in your life. Instead of becoming entangled in weights, sins and contradictions, YOU LOOK AWAY UNTO JESUS. That is where your victory is – Your identification. Looking deeply, intently, paying closer attention and becoming addicted to what the Word reveals concerning your life.

Blessings
Alan

Pinetown children flourish in Aftercare Centre

Gary Kellys (Pinetown Campus Pastor)

Pinetown Campus launched an Aftercare Centre offering a safe after-school environment for learners of all ages.

On the 1st of March Pinetown Campus launched an Aftercare Centre with the purpose of creating a safe after-school facility for learners of various ages. Children are cared for and also assisted with their homework at the centre. Internet access and printing facilities, at no extra cost to the parents, ensure that children can do research for homework and projects. A transport facility is also available shuttling learners from the respective schools to the Aftercare Centre. We are excited about the fact that various future holiday programmes will also be presented at the facility.

We are thankful to the partners of the campus who are running the facility. These partners believe that God has called them to step up and be part of this dynamic new venture. We praise the Lord for these partners as they take up their roles as CITY CHANGERS! As part of the Doxa Deo family, Pinetown Campus has a deep desire to transform our beautiful city to a place where God has dominion. The Pinetown Aftercare Centre is just one of the ways in which we as campus, is contributing to this dream.

Xanadu's Cargo of Dreams project receives ATKV award

Carel Krige (Director Xanadu School & College)

The Xanadu School & College initiated the Cargo of Dreams project which was named winner of the nationwide ATKV-Handevat competition

Xanadu School and College was one of 12 finalists from all over the country in the 2010 ATKV-Handevat competition. The aim of this competition is to encourage privileged schools to take hands with underprivileged schools and together create a long-term sustainable upliftment project that will benefit the local community.

Xanadu enrolled the Cargo of Dreams project. The scope of this initiative is three-fold: building a facility to house a pre-school, establishing a pre-school programme and running a continuous feeding scheme. As the building project took longer than anticipated, it was decided to start the programme in temporary shipping containers at the beginning of 2010. We are blessed with Lorraine Maake who is running this programme. As an evangelist and youth worker she is passionately involved in each child's life.

The announcement was made early in February that Xanadu is the overall national winners of the ATKV-Handevat competition. The two partner schools each won R30 000. Xanadu will invest this money back into the Cargo of Dreams project. What a privilege to be an instrument of significant impact in God's hands. All the Lord needs is for us to be available – He will accomplish the rest. Through us God's dream of cities changing to reflect His glory, is realised. To Him all the glory and praise!

WELCOME TO THE DOXA DEO GUESTHOUSE

Rozanne Hodgetts (Host)

Our property in Olivier Street has been converted to a guesthouse which will be open to the public and will also be used to host both national and international guests

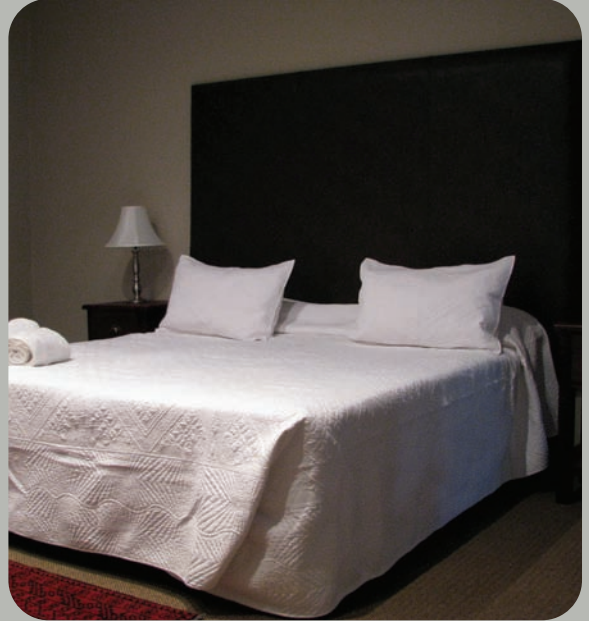

We are excited to announce that the Doxa Deo Guesthouse is officially in operation. Situated in the heart of Pretoria's up-market suburb, Brooklyn, this property has a special history. In the past it served as a "Leadership Centre" before it was used as a commune for Metamorpho students. Today it is a guesthouse with the purpose of generating funding for the Doxa Deo family.

The property was completely upgraded and transformed into an elegant guesthouse. The project started at the end of October 2010 and through various resources, hard work, time and commitment it was completed. The guesthouse offers stylish accommodation with comprehensively equipped facilities. Both tastefully and authentically decorated, the guesthouse has 13 luxury-en-suite rooms which is complemented by attention to detail and service excellence. The guesthouse is situated in a peaceful and secure environment.

We were honoured to welcome our first international guests, Billy Wilson and Nik Petrakis, all the way from the US in March, as they were visiting the greater Doxa Deo family in Tshwane. The Doxa Deo Guesthouse is hosted by Rozanne Hodgetts and managed by Adri Stroebel.

If you are aware of anyone in need of accommodation in the Brooklyn and surrounding areas, please refer them to the Doxa Deo family's guesthouse.

Thursday with God! Brooklyn Campus (Young Adults Prayer Action)

A special testimony of Brooklyn Campus partners who engaged in a prayer action directly after the Worship Conference held earlier in March. After receiving word they drove of into the city to pray. They visited various locations – one of which was the Faerie Glen Hospital.

“After that we drove to the Faerie Glen Hospital. As we drove into the driveway the security boom opened without us having to stop. The security guard was standing ready with a parking card with the word LIFE standing out. We weren’t sure about what we were going to pray for when we stopped, but one of the girls quickly pointed out that there were people praying in the reception area. We all agreed that we should go and pray with them. We went into the hospital and stood behind the people waiting for them to finish their prayer. When they were done we told them that we wanted to pray with them and asked what it was they were praying for. A lady informed us that thieves broke into their home and shot her husband. According to the paramedics and an early doctor assessment the bullets were stuck and they weren’t sure if they will be able to help him. We took hands and started praying. We prayed that God will be glorified through the situation and that His name be lifted high! We prayed for grace, healing and prayed for all the bullets to be pushed out. We prayed for compassion. One of the family members started praying for forgiveness for the thieves and asked God to penetrate their hearts and bring change in them. We then prayed in silence for a while before we stopped. We looked up and the doctor stood there with the update. He said that there was nothing to be worried about and that her husband was going to be fine. The bullets didn’t penetrate any vital organs or veins. He told us that they were shallow and that they were lodged in the muscles. The news was mind blowing and the glory was given to God. The lady was able to see her husband and God truly stepped in touching this family’s life. What an awesome experience, just to be part of His work and witnessing His compassion. Whilst driving back we kept on thanking Him and praising Him for an awesome Thursday with God. Let His light shine in, through and over the city and proclaim His name! He is the God of our city!”
